

To the Commissioner of the FCC,

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear breach of FCC rules.

While there can be no absolutely unbiased reporting of news, Sinclair's executives' directive is self-serving and self-dealing.

The FCC must take action to prohibit this sort of hijacking of the airwaves that all broadcasters use free of charge. Sadly, over the last few presidential election cycles, political discourse in the United States has become a series of ugly and uninformative diatribes.

Please take action on this blatant example of unfair and unethical practices of a media behemoth.

Sincerely,

Margaret Poser
